THE COOK SUSPECTED.

When at a recent dinner party in the Punahou district the wine was found to be inundated with water the blame was promptly put on the cook but the embarrassment was on the hostess. The result is a visit to Haleiwa for the rest of the summer. There is no mixing of wine with water down there, they are served separately as desired and the meals are better served than at any place in the Territory. People who go down now will have the pleasure of the moonlight dance and concert Saturday night. St. Clair Bid-Boyle, H. A. Jaeger, J. W. Donald, good, Manager.

IMMIGRATION WORK IS HIGHLY PRAISED

IMMIGRATION INSPECTOR WHO TRAVELED WITH THE KUMERIC ARRIVALS IS MAKING REPORT TO WASHINGTON WHICH IS EXCEEDINGLY FAVORABLE—AMONG THE BEST IMMIGRANTS AMERICA EVER GOT, SAYS INSPECTOR HENDRIX.

Immigration Inspector Hendrix, who traveled with the S. S. Kumeric's Portuguese immigrants to Hawaii from Madeira is making a report to the Immigration Bureau, Washington, D. C., which identifies the last shipment of Europeans to these islands as one of the best lots of immigrants, in a general way, ever admitted into United States Territory.

His report will be exhaustive and go into the details of the method of soliciting immigration at the other end, the manner of careful medical examination and the various and interesting tests applied to applicants before they were admitted aboard the Kumeric to be brought to Honolulu.

In spite of all precautions, however, out of the 1100 and more men, women and children brought here, there proved to be 23 who could not be admitted and some of these, it has been discovered, procured passage in the big British steamship by fraud. One woman, for example, anxious to get her young daughter to come to Hawaii with her, and the child being an idiot, presented her niece for examination instead of her own child. The niece very much resembled the daughter in size and appearance, and the niece was passed. Then the scheming mother substituted her own child and brought her to Honolulu. Since the child has to be returned the mother will go back with her. There were one or two similar cases. One of the reports is a woman not desirable as a member of the community, from a moral standpoint and she will also be sent back. Twenty-three out of about United States.

Stackable supplied a number of barber's tools, among other things, before the vessel sailed and the hair of the children was clipped several times during the voyage to avoid uncleanness. Regular washdays were appointed and daily examinations of portions of the shipboard were made for any signs of sickness or uncleanness. Stackable, according to one of those who traveled in an official capacity aboard the Kumeric, went about the task of selecting immigrants as a man might go about the work of picking out a lot of cattle, choosing the very best for his employer, looking to their physical condition most carefully. Children old enough to walk were made to give exhibitions of what they could do in the walking line, to make sure that they were not crippled or lame. The result is, as Hendrix says in his report to Washington, that Hawaii member of the community, from a moral standpoint and she will also be sent back. Twenty-three out of about United States.

A NOTE FOR MR. HIGGINS

EDITOR STAR: Congressman Higgins' complaint that he didn't hear the Star Spangled Banner much in Hawaii might be answered by referred him to the following version, which Life of New York, says is the way it is sung on the mainland:

O-o-h say, can you see by the dawn's early light
Whatsoe'er grows here and there the la-la-la gleaming?
Who shaw stri'ean bri stah sroo the perilous night
O'er the la-la-la-la-la we go gal-lan-tee stream-ing.
And the rah-ket's red (silence save for a few tenors) bur-sting in air
La-la through the night t-t-t that our fla gwah still there.

Oi that shore la-la-la; la-la-la-la-la-la
La-la-doo-dull-die-day, doodle-day-doe-die-doo-dull?
La-la-la-la-la-la; la-la-la-la-la-la?
La-la-la (etc. for three lines; then all together)
Tiz'z thuh stah-bang-le-spanner, oh, law-aw may-ay-yit-it wa-ay
Oh the la-an doff the freeee, an the ho-of moff thu bray.

(Remaining stanzas by the band, with spasms from the patriots.)
AMERICAN.

TWENTY THREE MUST SKIDDOO

REJECTED PORTUGUESE FROM KUMERIC TO RETURN BY WAY OF NEW YORK.

All but 27 of the Kumeric's Portuguese immigrants have passed the U. S. Immigration Station and found homes on plantations or in this city. Of the 27, four are still on quarantine island and 23 are at the Immigration Station awaiting deportation.

When the S. S. Kumeric sailed for Vancouver with Japanese there were 19 Portuguese for deportation, but they were not sent away in the Kumeric.

These 23 will be deported as convenient, going by way of San Francisco and probably overland to New York, thence to Madeira. They will not necessarily all be sent away at once. While waiting to be deported they will be most comfortable at the U. S. Immigration Station, the steamship company of which the Kumeric is a vessel being responsible for the expenses of maintenance here and also for the expense of deportation.

One of the women who arrived in the Kumeric and went to the Coast in the S. S. China came here with the expectation of meeting her husband who had been here some time. On arrival she found that he had gone to the Coast to better himself and she followed him. She told the authorities that she had no idea of going beyond Hawaii when she took passage in the Kumeric.

THE REAL DIFFICULTY.

Growing fruits is not so difficult in a land where there is plenty of water for irrigation and a perfect climate to mature the trees. But the work of picking, packing and marketing comprises an art that may do not master, even after years of experience. The association of all growers comes to the relief of such parties. It furnishes the packers to insure the proper and uniform filling of every parcel, whether in box or basket. The packers are selected because of being experts in that line of work. They pack every case so that one weighs the same as another, and when opened the fruits present absolute uniformity.—Seattle Post-Intelligence.
